

I cannot believe that Sinclair Broadcasting is allowed to broadcast such partisan and fictional account of John Kerry's commitment and service to the United States, without some sort of counterpoint. This will just lead to a further degradation of television as a source for accurate news.